

STRATEGIC RESPONSE TO CRISIS

MARCH 28-29, 2016

The Southwest Geographic Area will be hosting a Strategic Response to Crisis training, March 28-29 in Tucson, AZ. This course will present essential information for the assessment of both crisis situations and the effects of critical incidents on people involved in those situations. Participants will learn to create an effective plan of action to assist those in crisis and participate in exercises designed to sharpen assessment and crisis planning skills. Strategic planning and tactical decision making will be emphasized and rationales for choosing one set of crisis intervention processes over another.

Program highlights: Strategic planning as it applies to crisis intervention, National Incident Management System and crisis intervention, elements of effective planning, steps in developing the plan, planning process in assessing target populations, determining the type, timing and resources necessary, assisting large numbers of people involved in a crisis, the most important crisis intervention tactics, managing a complicated or large scale crisis event.

Instructor: Dr. Dan Clark

International Critical Incident Stress Foundation (ICISF Instructor)

Dates: Begins Monday, March 28 1000 and ends at 1700 Tuesday, March 29

Tuition: None

Prerequisite: Basic Individual Crisis Intervention and Peer Support & Group Crisis Intervention (CISM)

Registration: Hardcopy nominations must be emailed to Asad Rahman at arahman@blm.gov no later than March 1, 2016

Nomination forms can be found at the following link: Nominations can be obtained from the following link:
http://www.nationalfiretraining.net/nwcg_nomination_form

The course is not intended to replace the need for mental health care professionals or their roles and responsibilities. Attendees who successfully complete this session will be encouraged to provide peer support when a need arises.

Southwest Geographic Area

Kenan Jaycox
kjaycox@fs.fed.us

