

 NORTHERN ROCKIES COORDINATING GROUP ***

December 2011

RECRUITMENT NOTICE: The Northern Rockies Coordinating Group sponsors and has oversight responsibility for two Type 1 Incident Management Teams, two Wildland Fire Management Teams, and five Type 2 Incident Management Teams. Type 1 Teams and Wildland Fire Management Teams are managed at the geographic area level while Type 2 Teams are managed at the zone level. All teams will be filling vacant positions for the 2012 season.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All state, federal and local government employees within the Northern Rockies Geographic Area, and the Eastern Geographic Area.

TIMELINE:

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| December 1 | Nominations for open positions will be taken using the IMTcenter.net web based application process. |
| January 30 | All nominations from outside the Northern Rockies Geographic Area (excluding Eastern Area), must state in the remarks that they have approval of the host GACC to participate on a team outside of the host GACC. |
| February | Team members selected (Type 1 & 2 ICs, WFMT ICs, Team Coordinators, NRCG Operations Committee, and Eastern Area representative). |
| February | All team members notified of selection status. |
| March | Type 1, 2 and Wildland Fire Management Teams Workshops. |

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. All individuals selected for Command and General Staff positions on teams, including trainees, are expected to attend their team workshop, if budgets allow.
2. The Eastern Area is guaranteed positions, including trainees, on Northern Rockies teams. All Eastern Area applicants must be approved by the Eastern Area Ops Committee before selection.
3. For information on the schedules, policies, team configuration, etc. refer to the team operating plan posted on the NRCC web site (<http://gacc.nifc.gov/nrcc/dispatch/overhead/overhead.htm>).
4. Incident Management and Wildland Fire Management Teams are utilized on complex incidents and face great challenges in directing interagency resources towards a common goal. When a team is on call, it is expected that team members will be available. Granted, events can occur that make individuals unavailable for assignment, but these events should be few and on a short-term basis. Please give serious consideration to the availability commitment when applying for a position on a team.
5. Generally a 3 year commitment is expected for each of the Command and General Staff positions on all teams. All other positions are a 1 year commitment.
6. All individuals that are not part of the 56-position roster will be placed on the alternate list.
7. Individuals desiring to be alternates on any team must submit an updated application annually.
8. "Free-lancing" by team members is allowed on a case by case basis as agreed to by the IC.
9. We realize that people have personal commitments during fire season, which might affect their availability (vacations, planned leave, business meetings etc.) We will do everything possible to accommodate those needs. It is the responsibility of the team member to notify their unit / section chief and their dispatch center of any change in their availability. It is the team member's responsibility to locate an available and qualified replacement, utilizing the team alternate list, if they are unavailable for an assignment.
