CURRENT LOCATION OF EACH CREW IN MODULE:

- VA, TN, MS, NC-NCF and NC-NCS crews are all at Alaska Fire Services, Ft. Wainwright, in Fairbanks AK

TODAY'S CREW ASSIGNMENTS:

- All 5 crews are being demobed for reassignment in Montana. Standing by to board NICC Jet for flight to MSO today

MORALE OF CREWS: Excellent

INJURIES: None

MESSAGE:

All 5 crews are in demob status. From the NICC Jet Flight Strip:

NICC Jet arrives Fairbanks (FBK) at 1600 on 8/20; Departs FBK with all 5 crews (the Knoxville Module #3) at 1045 on 8/21; Arrives Missoula (MSO) at 1630 on 8/21.

MS crewmembers volunteered to fly commercial to resolve the overweight issue for the module. Jim Burton will meet them at the MSO airport when they arrive this morning and then will deliver them to the MS crew when it arrives on the NICC Jet. Jim will call SACC to confirm when the module arrives and crew members get reconnected with their MS crew.

Jim Burton called. He sat in on morning conference call at NRCC MSO. When our module arrives they expect to assign 1 crew to Lolo Fire, 2 crews to Rock Creek Fire, and 2 crews to the Incendiary Fire. By the time the module arrives NRCC will have mad the actual crew assignments for each fire. At this time Jim is now going to the MSO airport to pick up Reggie and Daniel.

Three crewmembers had boot issues and I transported all three to a good boot dealer in Fairbanks for new boots. The crews are very happy and are in great shape, looking forward to new assignments in Montana or wherever.

I will work with the module and AICC this morning, and see them off on the NICC Jet and then will fly Alaska Air departing Fairbanks at 1300 and arriving MSO at midnight on 8/21, and reconnect with Jim and the module.
