

Happy Holidays from the Bridger-Teton National Forest

Watch your campfire

A campfire is a great way to keep warm on a cold night. Make sure you have a fire ring around your campfire and a nearby bucket of water. Watch your fire for wayward sparks and embers. When you put out your campfire follow these steps: drown, stir, drown, feel—and repeat if necessary.

Forest Service
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

16 U.S.C. 580p-4 & 18 U.S.C. 711a