MORNING INFORMATION REPORT FOR TODAY September 20, 2017

TO BE READ AT 10:30

.DISCUSSION...

Expect cool, breezy and showery weather again today as an upper level trough pivots over the region. The best chance for wetting rains are forecast over the Idaho Panhandle. Snow levels will be near 5000 feet for another day. This upper trough will slowly exit Thursday and Friday with a decrease in showers and moderating temperatures. A high pressure ridge will build over the region this weekend bringing a gradual warming and drying trend into early next week.
