

WildCAD Line-Up Definitions

Available – Resource is sitting inside at their desk or office (no status check at the end of the day)

Available on Page – They are on and in a meeting, where they will only receive text messages (no status check at the end of the day)

Available on Cell – They are away from their desk or office with no radio around, but have their cell phone with them (no status check at the end of the day)

Available in Quarters – At Duty Station, Available for Immediate IA (no status check at the end of the day)

In Service – In a Government Vehicle - “Wheels, Hooves, or Feet are moving or have moved” (status check at the end of the day, before end of shift, if resource has not gone into quarters yet)
***Only exception are FS Lookout Towers during fire season.***

Out of Service - No longer available

Delayed Response – Available for initial attack, but will take time to respond for an IA (i.e. 30 minute response times)

Overnight – Resource staying overnight away from their home unit

Duty Officer Available - Resource is sitting inside at their desk or office (no status check at the end of the day)

Duty Officer In Service – In a Government Vehicle - “Wheels are turning or have turned” (status check at the end of the day, before end of shift, if resource has not gone into quarters yet)

Out of Service Mechanical – Not available for IA response