

Southwest Area Type 2 Incident Commander Recruitment Notice for the Eastern Arizona Team

11-02-07

To: Potential Type 2 Team Incident Commanders

From: Southwest Coordinating Group (SWCG)

Information

The Southwest Geographic Area consists of Arizona, New Mexico, and Federal lands in West Texas and panhandle of Oklahoma. The Southwest Area hosts four Type 2 Incident Management Teams comprised of individuals from federal, state, and local agencies. Regional and State level agency administrators encourage and support employee participation on these teams.

The normal minimum season dates established by SWCG for the Eastern Arizona Type 2 team is:

Eastern Arizona Team: 3/15 – 8/15

The team will be dispatched by the Southwest Coordination Center. Type 2 teams manage incidents of moderate to high complexity; the teams consist of experienced incident management personnel. Although their primary incident response is wildfire, the teams may respond to all-risk incidents such as hurricanes, floods, or other national emergencies.

The Incident Commander position is expected to be a 3 year tenure. Other team positions are filled on an annual basis and will be recruited for in November and December. Southwest Type 2 Teams are managed by the SWCG per the Southwest Geographic Area Incident Management and Fire Use Team Principles.

Qualified individuals from all agencies, throughout the Southwest Geographic Area, are encouraged to apply, if able to fulfill the commitment as Incident Commander.

Please complete the attached application form to apply, and send it to the Southwest Coordination Center complete with supervisor's signature and responses to the supplemental questions by November 6, 2007 at 1700 MST. This application is only for Eastern Arizona , if application was received prior for Eastern Arizona you need not re-apply your application will be considred for this application period as well. Incomplete and/or late applications will not be considered. Applications will be accepted via the SWCC fax to 505-842-3801 or by e-mail to kjaycox@fs.fed.us. If using e-mail, please fax the signature page to SWCC also. After submitting applications, please follow-up with a phone call to Kenan Jaycox at 505-362-7004 to ensure receipt.

Selection and notifications will be made by the SWCG by November 7. The selectee will be expected to do team transition work with the outgoing Incident Commander from the Eastern Arizona Team, and will assume team Incident Commander responsibilities for the 2008 fire season. They will also be expected to attend the SW IMT team member selection meeting in Albuquerque on January 10th, and are expected to attend the SW IMT meeting the week of March 24, 2008, along with their team.
