

GEOGRAPHIC COORDINATION CENTERS

There are eleven Geographic Areas across the United States and Alaska. Each Area is overseen by a Geographic Area Coordinating Group. Each Area has a Geographic Area Coordination Center (GACC) which acts as a focal point for internal and external requests for resources not filled at the local level. The GACCs are located in the following areas:

- ALASKA - Fort Wainwright, AK
- EASTERN – Milwaukee, WI
- EAST GREAT BASIN - Salt Lake City, UT
- NORTHERN CALIFORNIA - Redding, CA
- NORTHERN ROCKIES - Missoula, MT
- NORTHWEST - Portland, OR
- ROCKY MOUNTAIN - Lakewood, CO
- SOUTHERN - Atlanta, GA
- SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA - Riverside, CA
- SOUTHWEST - Albuquerque, NM
- WEST GREAT BASIN - Reno, NV

NATIONAL INTERAGENCY FIRE CENTER

The National Interagency Fire Center \(NIFC\) in Boise, Idaho is the nation's support center for wildland firefighting. Eight Federal and State agencies call NIFC home and work together to coordinate and support wildland fire and disaster operations. These agencies include the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Bureau of Land Management, USDA Forest Service, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, National Park Service, National Association of State Foresters, National Weather Service, Office of Aircraft Services, and United States Fire Administration. Also located at NIFC, the National Interagency Coordination Center \(NICC\) works with GACCs, as well as other countries, to coordinate land management agency response for wildland fire at the national level.
